Terms & Conditions Relating to Qatalyst Global’s Complimentary VIP Conference Passes

Qatalyst Global is a provider of international, high-level, B2B events aimed at senior professionals working in industrial cyber security, Artificial Intelligence, and the Industrial Internet of Things. Our market leading summits are crafted by experienced in-house producers in partnership with steering committee members from government, key institutions, academia, vendors, and end-user companies, to ensure that the most relevant topics are addressed effectively.

The success of Qatalyst Global events lies in balancing expertly-curated programming with extensive opportunities for networking. As such, we take the quality of our sponsors, speakers, and delegates very seriously, and pay close attention to the value we can bring to them, as well as the value they can bring to the summit and to each other.

With this in mind, Complimentary VIP conference passes, just like any others, are subject to the qualification of the attendee’s profile to the standards set by Qatalyst Global.

Conditions of Admission & Attendance as a Complimentary VIP Pass Holder

Complimentary VIP passes are given only to individuals who fit into the following profile:

- Delegates: representatives of public or private sector organisations who are not vendors, insurance providers, consultants, or lawyers

Cancellation Rights & Restrictions

Once claimed, conference passes cannot be transferred, exchanged or resold. Qatalyst Global reserves the right to cancel the attendance of pass holders whose name doesn’t correspond with that on his/her ticket.

Qatalyst Global reserves the right to cancel a Complimentary VIP Conference Pass if the pass holders’ profile doesn’t correspond to those of the summit’s target audience. Those not entitled to Complimentary VIP Conference Passes include:

- Vendors: Solutions providers, consultants, lawyers, insurers, and associations are welcome to register as vendor-attendees or apply as a company for a sponsorship slot.
- Holders of lower than management positions.
- Members of press.
- Members of marketing departments, sales or product development teams, and/or others who aren’t suitable to the summit’s discussions.

Claiming Your Ticket

All registrations must be made online at the ‘registration section’ of each event’s website. To claim a Complimentary VIP Conference Pass, please check that you fit into the profiles here described, provide the specific code at checkout within the set deadline, and enjoy!

Please contact info@qatalystglobal.com if you have any further questions.